Capability Statement

MD Franks provides professional support services including strategy and doctrine expertise, training and education support, and acquisition and contracting support. We provide the U.S. Federal government with specialized program management and financial management support in all aspects of Federal procurement. We provide staff support in a strategic NATO HQ with up to PhD level expertise on a wide range of specific topics relevant to NATO and provide doctrine support to the U.S. Army. We provide training and education support to the NATO Allied Special Operations Command (SOFCOM) and provide exercise support to NATO and U.S. Special Operations Command Europe (SOCEUR). We also provide instructors and senior mentors for education, training and exercise facilitation. In addition, we provided a SERE instructor pool to a NATO allied nation ensuring their protection and success in today's complex operating environment. Further, we provide expertise on technology insertion / development to meet U.S. Government requirements. We also support a Fixed Wing aviation Intelligence, Surveillance, and Reconnaissance (ISR) contract in testing cutting edge technologies to support the warfighter. MD Franks also provides staffing support to other selected government contractors.
